*The Christian church and the Christian ministry have been potent factors in securing the civil and religious liberties and in shaping the civilization we enjoy. It is, therefore, both right and enjoy. It is, therefore, both right and duty for this conference of Christian r, listers, representing a large section of the most numerous branch of the American Protestant church, to make a deliverance upon the national and inter-national questions now commanding the attention of the peoples of many lands,

"Almighty God did not permit this land of curs to be first peopled by the races from which the discoverers came, but sheltered it by His omnipotent hand during the first century after its discovery, until the Scriptures were disentented in the old world and the races of men fit to found a republic were moded by their regenerative power. Then He lifted His hands, and the Huguenots, the Hollanders, the Puritans and the Cavallers came to the new world and laid the foundations of the republic and of American institutions with civil and religious liberty as the cornerstone.

After the report had been read there was a great demonstration and it took zone time before Bishop Hurst could restore order. It was then decided to take a rising vote on the adoption of the committee's report. Of the 168 delgates present all voted in favor of its Baoption, save three.

By an oversight Bishop Hurst announced the vote as unanimous. The three men who voted in opposition jumped to the floor. Each gave his reason for his vote, declaring that the tenor of the report was too warlike. They were the Rev. Dr. Richard Wheattey, of Cold Spring; the Rev. Austin H. Haines, of Lagrangeville, and the Rev. George B. Mend, of Vallesgate-on-Hudson. The wording of the motion to incept the report also included sending it to the Fresident and the committee on lorigin affairs. There was a decided objection to the latter portion. The question was put to a vote and the side favoring the sending of it to the President web.

The conviction is evidently unaltered in Wall Street that the delay in pre-senting the President's message to Con-scress adds to the possibilities of a peaceful solution of the Cuban ques-tion. The market closed a shade lower to-day in the average price. Individual losses were in almost all cases confined to fractions and there is a fair sprink-ling of gains among leading stocks. ling of gains among leading stocks.
Only a small proportion of the sharp advance which came with yesterday's ling of gains among leading stocks. Only a small proportion of the sharp advance which came with yesterday's news that the message was to be delayed until Monday was whed out. The professional bears showed no disposition to renew their contracts. Neither was there any sign of liquidation of long holdings. The only buying demand was caused by some slight covering of shorts and a very limited amount of commission house buying. The result was an almost stagnant market. There was no development of the day which awakened it from its lethargic condition. That this dullness is due to an attitude of waiting was evident from the subsequent activity when it became known yesterday that the President's message was delayed and when it supposed that the delay indicated probable concessions by the Madrid government. The public impression in Wall street is that, the undertone of firmness in the market is due to some hidden motive, generally supposed to be the expectation that Spain will yield to pressure from the European powers and from the pope and will concede the demands of the United States, To-day's small losses in face of the generally threatening aspect of the situation could not only be explained on the hypothesis that a peaceful solution is still hoped for. There are, however, demonstrations in gesterday's late builge that large offerings to realize are brought out by any sharp advance in prices. Professional operators on either side are warily waitching for the definite developments of the situation. It is thought possible that the liquidation usually incident to a war scare is waiting for the expected heavy demand from the large short interest which undoubtedly exists in the market. This short interest is waiting for an actual declaration of war to cover. On the other hand there are those who hold that actual war has already been sufficiently discounted and that the firmness in the market is due to this cause. The situation in the money market is felt to be one fortified against even a severe shock. Bank reserves a the country have been greatly strength ened. The gold reserve both of th government and of the New Yor banks is large, unprecedently so in the case of the latter, and it is constantly growing. A large proportion of the payments at the custom house are made in rold and the clearing house are in great part settled in the sam-metal. There is no immediate prospec of international exchanges turning against the United States and until this occurs there will be gold imports to re-placish the money market. To-day's ad-vance in the Bank of England rate did not check the engagements of gold, but served to shift the demand somewhat from London to Berlin. The rise in mo-ney in London resulted in a rise in the Berlin and Paris rate of exchange on

Breadstuffs and Provisions

CHICAGO-A combination of favorable crop reports, weak cables and an absence of important trading made a very dull and weak market of wheat to-day, July closing at a decline of about a cent. The closing of the foreign exchanges until after the Easter holidays, undoubtedly had some effect on the volume of trading done. Everything else on the floor was weak, partly through sympathy with wheat. Corn closed ite lower, oats 14674c lower and provisions 52674c lower.

A continuance of the weakness which became so marked the opening in wheat to-day, July, which closed yesterday at 814685c, ranging all the way from 8475c to 849c. Nearly everything was against the price at the start. The Michigan crop report was perhaps the most important factor. That report gave the wheat condition at 96c, the highest April figures since 1891. Liverpool showed a decline of about 32d and continental markets were equally weak. The fear of damage to winter wheat by frosts, which has hovered over the market for several days, was effectually dissipated by the higher temperatures now prevailing throughout the west. About the only crumb of comfort the buils were given was the figures of the northwest receipts, which showed a considerable falling off. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 159 cars, against, 229 last week and 264 a year ago. There was some scattered buying at the start by local shorts and scalpers satisfied with recent profits, but the majority of traders were on the selling side. Liquidation by discouraged longs was quite marked for a time, and there was some active short selling as well. For nearly two hours the course of the market was stendily downward, varied occasionally by small fraction railies as shorts came in to cover. About 11:20 o'clock the bad crop reports from California, which had been coming in all morning, began to have some effect on the market. The condition there as a result of the cold and draught was said to be very grave, some reports placing the crop condition at the season was somewhat nullified by heavy rains in California during the past forty-eight hours, but the decline wa not more than half filled. Although the local markets will be open to-morrow, the closing of the continental markets over the Easter holidays had a tendency to narrow scalping trade. The close was steady at 83% for July. by the warmer weather and prospects of larger receipts on account of the open-ing of navigation. There was a good deal of commission house selling and some professional liquidation. The de-cline was stopped by the heavy cash business. May ranged from 29%c to 29c and closed 14c lower at 2914c.

Weakness in wheat and corn had -a like effect on oats, that market ruling lower from the start. Unfavorable crops lower from the start. Unfavorable crops had very little effect. Trade was small, moderate offerings being taken very slowly. May ranged from 23½c to 25½c and closed ½6½c lower at 25½c.

Provisions were weak, partily with grain and partly on lower hog receipts. There was a continuation of the packing house selling of yesterday, particularly of lard. There was some recovery near the close on covering. May pork closed 7½c lower at $5 17½, and May ribs 5c lower at $5 15.
